

Literacy Volunteers of Rensselaer County
Presents a SCRABBLE Challenge

Sunday, February 17, 2019

St. Michael's Church Hall, 175 Williams Road, Troy (near HVCC)

1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Attention all word lovers and SCRABBLE players!

Literacy Volunteers of Rensselaer County is holding its 5th annual SCRABBLE Challenge fundraiser. It's a great way to have fun while helping others – so gather your team of two to four players and join in to rack your brains and play your tiles, all for a good cause. Play is low-pressure, with the focus on FUN.

Prizes! A Good Cause! Our SCRABBLE Challenge is about more than just the fun of it. There will be prizes for the top three prize winners. Three SCRABBLE games will be played and the winners will be the teams who score the most total points. For your best chance to win, please come prepared to pay for a peek at the dictionary and for extra tiles – all in good fun!

In between the SCRABBLE games, event emcee Joe Malone will lead participants in side contests of trivia. And there will be some fun raffle prizes to take a chance on, too. All proceeds of this event will help Literacy Volunteers of Rensselaer County to offer free literacy services including tutoring in basic reading and writing, tutoring in English as a second language, and high school equivalency prep to adults. Refreshments will be available and included in registration fee.

How It Works Teams of two to four players register in advance and pay a registration fee of $20 per person ($10 per person for students under 18) or $80 for a Team of 4. Teams bring their own boards and tiles. Your team competes against the other teams in this non-traditional format. Score-keepers and judges will provide assistance at the event.
