2018-2019 was a year to celebrate.

The 50th Anniversary Celebration in October 2018 at the Hilton Garden Inn, Troy, brought together more than 100 students, volunteers and supporters and raised $22,700.

Four Tutor Training Workshops prepared 22 new volunteer tutors to work with Basic Literacy and English Language learners.

129 volunteer tutors provided 5,023 hours of service to 166 learners in Rensselaer County and nearby communities, helping adults to improve their skills in reading, writing, math, and conversational English.

22 learners got or improved employment, and 37 learners improved their employability skills.

25 learners became more involved in their children’s education, and five learners became U.S. citizens.

In the new Sewing and English Language Workplace Skills class, 4 volunteers helped 8 women gain English and employment skills while learning to sew.

Four volunteers continued to lead Workplace Literacy programs for 20 employees at Blasch Precision Ceramics and Hilton Garden Inn, Troy.

The Literacy Study Circle gave eight students the chance to receive help from four reading and math tutors.

117 volunteer reading mentors in the Everybody WINS! Power Lunch program helped 121 children discover a love of reading.

11 women improved their financial literacy skills in the Make the Most of Your Money classes with Marie Heller and four volunteers as part of the Jamison-Rounds Ready for Work program at the YWCA-GCR in Troy.

With the aid of six volunteers, 14 English language learners studied U.S. government, history, and culture in the English Literacy Civics classes in Troy and Albany.

Four basic literacy learners and 3 tutors volunteered to be the subjects of new tutor training videos produced by Literacy New York.

44 learners improved their scores on standardized tests, and 25 learners increased participation in community activities.

20 tutors shared their knowledge at two Tutor Share and Exchange events at Sage College in Troy.
